

New Cadet Standard 2.0

140th Corps of Cadets

Dedicated, Motivated, Educated

Created by: BN S-6 Special Operations Officer

[October Issue]

What is the New Cadet Standard

2.0?

This Second Edition of the Standard in conjunction with the original standard includes the majority of information needed for promotion to Blackboard (E-1) and Private (E-2).

When to Salute:

A cadet will render the salute when he/she passes by a military officer and/or cadet officer. If the cadet is running they must walk while saluting the officer.

Leadership Principles:

- Know Yourself and Seek Self-Improvement
- Be Proficient
- Set the Example
- Be Responsible for Your Actions
- Make Sound and Timely Decisions
- Be Technically Proficient
- Know Your People and Look Out for Them
- Keep Your People Informed
- Develop Responsibility Among Your People
- Ensure the Task is Accomplished
- Build a Team Among Your People:

Leader Phases:

Emerging Leader
Red Board - Private First Class

Developing Leader
Corporal - Staff Sergeant

Supervising Leader
Sergeant First Class - Command
Sergeant Major

Managing Leader
2nd Lieutenant - Lieutenant Colonel

Individual Military Awards:

- Cadet of the Month
- Leader of the Month
- Best new cadet in each company
- Best overall new cadet
- Best NCO
- Best Platoon Sergeant
- Drill excellence
- Best drilled guidon bearer
- Best drilled sword
- Best drilled saber
- Best drilled returning cadet
- Best drilled first-year cadet
- Best set-up first year cadet
- Best set-up returning cadet
- Best spring individual drill competition

Unit Awards:

Ivanhoe Cup:

Awarded to the company that has achieved the highest amount of points as a result of all drill competition events from the individual level up through the company level.

Melcher/Elton Combs N1925 Cup:

Awarded to the company with highest overall points for uniform and room inspections.

John W. Kirsch S1945 Physical Training Cup:

Awarded to the company with the highest overall scores based on the Presidential Physical Fitness Test.

Maj. Edison B. Lerch S1919 Cup:

Awarded to the company with the best overall parade lines based on daily march-in standings and assessments of all parades conducted during the school year.

Charles T. Smythe/Harlan P. Davidson Cup:

Highest Company Composite GPA.

Edgar A. Schroeder S1910/Roger E.

Steadland S1947 Cup & Subalternship

JROTC Program Accreditation (JPA):

An audit that re-accredits the JROTC department (occurs every 3 years)

Last Occurred: 2022-2023

Score Received: 97/100

Awarded: Honor Unit W. Distinction.

American Flag:

50 Stars signify 50 US States

13 Stripes signify the original 13 colonies

Betsy Ross made the first American Flag

Red symbolizes hardiness and valor

White symbolizes purity and innocence

Blue represents vigilance, perseverance and justice.

Merging of Two Academies:

St. John's Northwestern Academies finds its roots in

Class Offenses:

Class III

- Uniform violations
- Absent or late to formation
- Disrespect (minor)
- Absent or late to class
- Unprepared for room inspection

Class II

- Possession, sale or use of electronic cigarettes, vapes, nicotine products, or tobacco products.
- Absent Without Leave (AWOL).
- Fighting.

Class I

- Hazing
- Possession of Illegal Drugs or

Stangeland S194 / Cup & Scholarship:

Awarded to the company with the best overall record of success.

GPA: Grade Point Average

St. John's Northwestern Academies finds its roots in the founding of two academies, St. John's Military Academy in Delafield, Wisconsin, and Northwestern Military & Naval Academy formerly in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. The two academies merged in 1995 to create what was known at the time as St. John's Northwestern Military Academy, and what we now know as St. John's Northwestern Academies

Alcohol

- Assault or Battery
- Immoral Conduct
- Major Vandalism
- Honor Violation